Rayat Shikshan Sanstha's Swami Sahajanand Bharati College of Education, Shirampur Dist. Ahmednagar and U.G.C. New Delhi Jointly organized the National level seminar on Saturday, 18th March 2017 on "Human Rights Education."

Education in human rights is itself a fundamental human right and also a responsibility: the Preamble to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) exhorts "every individual and every organ of society" to "strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms."

Integral to learning about one's human rights is learning about the responsibilities that accompany all rights. Just as human rights belong to both individuals and society as a whole, the responsibility to respect, defend, and promote human rights is both individual and collective. The Preamble of the UDHR, for example, calls not only on governments to promote human rights, but also on "every individual and every organ of society." Human rights education provides the knowledge and awareness needed to meet this responsibility.

The Goals of Human Rights Education

Human rights education teaches both about human rights and for human rights.

Its goal is to help people understand human rights, value human rights, and take responsibility for respecting, defending, and promoting human rights. An important outcome of human rights education is empowerment, a process through which people and communities increase their control of their own lives and the decisions that affect them. The ultimate goal of human rights education is people working together to bring about human rights, justice, and dignity for all.

The aim of organizing this seminar is to make people aware about the importance of human rights and its education. We need to have humanity and there should not be any kind of discrimination.
