TET/CTET/TAIT WORKSHOP

Best Practice: 2

Title: Teacher Eligibility Test (TET/CTET/TAIT) Workshop

Context:

TEI found that students lack knowledge and preparation for competitive exams, specifically the Teacher Eligibility Test (TET), which has resulted in a low pass rate among the students. Recognizing this issue, the college conducts workshop annually to provide guidance and support for the TET exam.

Objectives:

1. To create a supportive and conducive learning environment that motivates students to actively engage in TET/CTET/TAIT exam preparation.
2. To address any doubts or concerns that students may have regarding the TET/CTET/TAIT examination and provide clarifications through interactive discussions.
3. To administer mock or practice TET/CTET/TAIT exams to assess students' progress, identify areas for improvement, and provide feedback for further enhancement.

Top of Form

The Practice:

An orientation session sets the objectives, while subject-specific guidance is provided by expert teachers. Study materials, including textbooks and sample papers, are given to students. Practice tests and mock exams are conducted to simulate the exam environment, followed by constructive feedback. Doubt resolution sessions and individual support address students' concerns. Ongoing assessment tracks progress, ensuring students are well-prepared for the exam.

Evidence of Success:

137 students participated in the workshop in last five years and 28 students qualified the TET/CTET/TAIT exam., their Certificates and photographs.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

1. The existing schedule presents a challenge in allocating enough time for the workshop.
2. Limited print and digital study material available in the market.
